Raiffeisen Aval Asset Management – general sponsor of the Invest Expo - 2011

On the 1st, 2nd of April investment portal Investfunds (Cbonds group) will hold an exhibition called: «Invest Expo - 2011» Effective investment instruments, which will be generally sponsored by Raiffeisen Aval Asset Management.

The Exhibition is designed for active and potential investors to provide them with all info regarding asset management companies in Ukraine and their products. Potential investor will have an opportunity to achieve detailed consultation on each company's activity and choose the most suitable product for himself.

«We suppose that such Exhibition is really important for Ukrainian stock market as our people know almost nothing about mutual investment funds, not taking into consideration huge possibilities covered by this service. It's important that investor who wants to preserve and increase capital effectively could directly communicate with the Company's representatives and estimate professionalism and reliability of his future financial partner. One of the main principles for asset management company to provide for investors should be support of high informational transparency, so Raiffeisen Aval Asset Management totally supports the Exhibition by being it's general sponsor.

Raiffeisen Aval Asset Management has 3 open-ended investment funds under management, 7 individual portfolios of private investors and also assets of insurance company. At the Exhibition attendants will be able to achieve latest reports on investment funds activity and detailed answers for all their questions.
